Haddon Hall. The Manor of Bakewell, in which lies Haddon, was a gift from William the Conqueror to his natural son, William Peveril. From Peveril the Castle passed to Avenell, and from Avenell to de Vernon. The romantic elopement of Dorothy Vernon with John Manners, in the 16th century, has been told with pen and pencil scores of times. The Hall is now the property of the Duke of Rutland, the descendant of this John Manners, and it is one of the finest examples of a mediæval residence left in England. In the Winter Garden the yew trees are of wonderful size and antiquity.

Thanks for P.C.'s. We are enjoying ourselves but the weather seems to have broken. Hope you have had a good time. Love also from Bert
